

We are working carefully to lay out a plan for our students during the construction. We plan to address schedules, shared staff, and coordinate instructional spaces to minimize disruption.