

No, year-round school is not currently being considered by the district. We will consider starting prior to Labor Day with input from the community, staff, and Board of Education. By state law, our calendar requires 180 days of instruction for students, and no additional days of school would be added, though the start date, end date, and breaks during the year could be adjusted to match current Allegan County programs utilized by our students.